

VIHAA
INNOVATIVE SCHOOL

27th September
2026

Non-Newtonian Wonders Sensory Fun

Our young learners stepped into the world of tactile science as they explored the fascinating texture of Oobleck—a classic non-Newtonian fluid made from corn-starch and water. The children experienced a magical lesson in cause and effect. Under pressure, the mixture feels like a firm solid, but the moment they loosen their grip, it transforms into a flowing liquid!

